3/10/26

Cricle Invalid Data

Circle Invalid Data is a feature that identifies cells containing values that does not follow the applied data validation rules. Excel marks those cells with red color.

Steps:

- Apply data validation rales to the required cells
- Go to Data tab
- click the drop down arrow under data validation

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

DATE: PAGE:

- Select circle Invalid data
- Excel circles the cells containing invalid values in red
  Ex: If marks must be between 0 and 100, a mark of 150 will be circled is invalid.

Conditional Formatting

Conditional formatting is an excel features that automatically changes the appearance of cells based on specified conditions or rules

Steps
- Select required cells
- Go to the home tab
- Click conditional formatting
- Choose the required rules or formatting options
- Set the condition and select the formatting style
- Click OK

Scanned with OKEN Scanner